ABOUT THE BOOK

Beautiful windows begin with informed choices. This approachable, illustrated guide turns window-treatment decisions into a clearer, more manageable process. Homeowners can explore their options, prepare for consultations, compare proposals, and understand what to expect from installation and ongoing care—so they can move forward with confidence.

MEET THE AUTHOR

Christina Scott writes as Tina Marie Scott. Based in Bluffton, South Carolina, she is the founder of BarrelHouse Media and a photographer with more than 18 years behind the camera. Her experience in window-treatment operations inspired a friendly guide that helps homeowners ask better questions and feel confident in their choices.
